Numb. 373

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday March 3. to Monday March 7. 1697.

Kensington, March 5.

THE following Address from the Town of Cardiffe, was presented to His Majesty by Sir Charles Kemys Baronet, Mayor of the said Town, and Constable of the Castle, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Privy Seal.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of the Mayor, Bayliffs, Steward, Aldermen, Common Council, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Ancient Borough of Cardiffe in the County of Glamorgan.

Dread Soveraign,

SInce in Your great Condescention You are graciously pleased to delight Your Self in the Dutiful Tender of the Affections, as well as in the general Welfare of Your People, it would be an unpardonable Oblivion and Ingratitude if any of Your Subjects should fail to Testifie the Sence they have of Your Royal Care and Inclination.

We therefore Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, do with all Humility Congratulate Your Majesties happy Return to Your Kingdoms, the great and comprehensive Blessing which compleats and confirms to us the happiness You with successful Counsels, apparent Dangers, had fought out for us, that of an Honourable Peace.

Thereby Re-establishing that Faith which was so early planted amongst us, and so lately like to have suffered Shipwrack; a Deliverance which calls for our highest Acknowledgments and sincerest Joy.

You, Great SIR, have been much more than a Titular Defender of the Faith, 'tis You who have secured our Liberties and Legal Rights, all our present Felicities (under God) are concentered in You; so that Self-Interest (if not better Motives) must constrain us and all Your Subjects, unanimously to pray, that God would Reward Your Heroick Atchievements with a long, safe, and prosperous Reign over us; That Your Majesty may ever be blessed with the Hearts of all Your People, and they with the continuance of Your Royal Favour; And that the Glorious Example of Your Affection to them may remain as a Pattern to all succeeding Monarchs, and a perpetual Instigation to their Subjects to Love, Serve, and Obey their King, till all Anarchy and Confusion be utterly extirpated.

These are the Hopes and Supplications of all Your People, and of none more than of (Great SIR) Your Majesties most Dutiful Subjects, who had sooner Addrest themselves to You, had not the Right Honourable the Earl of Pembrooke, who is the Lord of this Town, been then absent in Holland, in Negotiating that Peace which Your Majesty has so Honourably brought to pass under the Banner of that Omnipotency that is the God of Peace and God of War.

The humble Address of the Bishop and Clergy of the Diocess of Bangor; And

The humble Address of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Bangor, were likewise presented to His Majesty.

The humble Address of the Soveraign, Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Recorder, Burgesses, Freemen, and Protestant Inhabitants of the Corporation of Kinsale in the Kingdom of Ireland, with the Commission Officers of the Garison there, the Officers of His Majesties Ships then in the said Port, and the Officers of His Majesties Yards and Customs, was presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Inchequin, and Edward Southwell Esq;

Which Addresses His Majesty received very Graciously.

Messina, Jan. 29. N. S. The Delavall Galley is come in here from Lisbon, being bound to Constantinople, as is also the Blackham, Capt. Newman Commander, from Smirna, bound for England. This morning came into our Harbour the Degrave, Capt. William Young, from Scanderoon, going to Leghorn, and thence to England.

Leghorn, Febr. 17. A Dutch Man of War of about 50 Guns, being Convoy to several Merchantmen bound hither from Gadiz, was some days ago cast away in a Storm about 4 Leagues to the Westward of this place, and the Captain, with all the Men, except 15, were drowned.

Venice, Febr. 19. Several Ships are fitting out here with all expedition, who are to sail to the Levant, and the two Men of War lately built called the Red-Cross and the Eagle, will go with them. Part of the Equipages of the Moscovite Prince Szeremet is arrived here, and himself is shortly expected. We hear from the Levant, that the Turkish Fleet was returned to Constantinople to refit; and that the Grand Signior and his Ministers had daily Consultations concerning the Measures to be taken against the next Campagne, and had sent for several of the Principal Bassa's to have their Advice, who were daily expected at Adrianople.

Warsaw, Feb. 22. The Gentlemen of the Rokotz, according to the Summons they received from the Cardinal Primate, met on the 18th Instant at Lowitz; The Assembly was very Numerous, and began with much heat, and great Complaints against those of their Party, who they said, contrary to their Oath, were gone over to the King's Interest; several Articles were proposed, to be presented to the King, and to be signed by his Majesty, for asserting their Rights and Privileges; Some of which are drawn up in such terms that the King cannot in Honour comply with them; The Commissioners the King sent thither, endeavour all they can to bring them to a better temper, and a few days more will let us see how this Meeting will end. In the mean time the King defers his Journey to Prussia. The Tartars, after having carried a Convoy of Provisions to Cominiec, made an Incursion into the Country about Lemberg, and threaten further mischief.

Vienna, Feb. 26. Count Stirum is on his departure for Poland, being to command the German Forces in that Kingdom. All hands are at work to get ready the new Vessels designed to joint our Fleet on the Danube. It is said that we shall have two Armies in the Field, and that while one besieges some considerable Town, the other will make head against the Turks. The Enemy seem very much to apprehend a Siege, and are preparing against it, at Belgrade and Temeswar. We hear also, that they are fortifying Vypalanka.

Francfort, March 5. The French give out, that they will Evacuate Philipsburg the 15th Instant, at which time it is thought they will also spring the Mines for demolishing the Fortifications at Eberenbourg. The Deputies of the Circle of the Upper Rhine are to assemble here, to consider of the Supplies demanded of them, towards maintaining the Garison of Philipsburg. The Dean of Spiers is gone with General Thungen to Kirweyler, to see if that place is convenient for the Residence of the Chamber of Spiers till the City of Spiers be repaired. The Elector Palatine designing to come and reside at Weynheim, the Castle of that place is fitting up for his Reception.

Cologne, March 7. We hear from Strasbourg, that about 800 Protestant Families are removing from thence. From Lorrain they write, that the French Forces which are at Nancy have begun to demolish the Fortifications of that place.

Hamburg, March 7. Our Letters from Stockholm tell us, that the Baron Von Heckeren, who resides at that Court on the part of the States-General, has renewed the Alliance between Sweden and Holland; That the Treaty was signed on the 24th of the last month, and he designed to leave that place as yesterday, and return to the Hague. The Duke of Holstein is come hither, and his Equipages are preparing for his going about a fortnight hence to Stockholme, in order to his Marriage with the Princess Hedwig Sophia, Sister to the present King of Sweden. The Treaty at Pinnenberg for Adjusting the Differences between the King of Denmark and Duke of Holstein, touching the Dutchy of Holstein, seems to be quite broke off. Mr. Stepney is arrived here, and intends in 3 or 4 days to proceed on his Journey to Berlin. Monsieur Bidal, who has formerly resided here on the part of the Crown of France, is returned hither with the same Character.

Brussels